

Bondweb official valuation source

BONDWEB Malaysia Sdn Bhd has been chosen as Malaysia's first official source for fair valuation on ringgit bonds by the Securities Commission (SC). It will provide a common valuation structure for Malaysian bonds and give greater access to information on bonds through its website. Bondweb is the country's pioneer specialist on the ringgit fixed income market. The move will set a benchmark in the industry, following globally accepted financial reporting standards that stress greater transparency and protecting investor interests.
